Day One: Depart from your selected joining point and travel to the Onich Hotel and Lochside Gardens, Onich (near Fort William) for your two nights stay. Comfort stops will be made en-route.

Day Two: Visit the popular coastal resort of Oban, known as the 'Gateway to the Isles', surrounded by dramatic shores and beautiful countryside. You may like to take this opportunity to walk up to the prominent landmark, McCaig's Tower, or perhaps visit the Oban Chocolate Company!

Day Three: A spectacular drive along the Great Glen, seeing Eilean Donan Castle and on to the magical Isle of Skye. You pass the lofty Cuillin Mountains as you travel to Uig for the sailing across to the Isle of Harris in the Outer Hebrides. Visit the town of Taransay before moving on to the Isle of Lewis and Stornoway, where you spend three nights at the Caladh Inn.

Day Four: Today is free for you to relax or sightsee in Stornoway, where Gaelic traditions and the language still survive. There are some lovely, easily graded walks round Lews Castle grounds and plenty of shops and attractions to browse on the seafront.

Day Five: An experienced, local guide joins our coach for an amazing tour of the island. This unforgettable day takes in a landscape of pretty moorland, sheer cliffs and sandy bays and incorporates a stop at the Standing Stones of Callanish, an antiquity of the Bronze Age.

Day Six: Following a morning to the Butt of Lewis, take the sailing back to the mainland and from Ullapool, travel through majestic Highland scenery to Newtonmore and the Highlander Hotel.
