Built over decades from the 1920s, Sir Clough Williams-Ellis designed this utterly unique place in the style of an Italian village in homage to the spirit of the Mediterranean. Experience the pace of life in 'the olden days', whilst admiring the strength of those gorgeous horses as they easily pull the boat through the majestic Welsh Mountains. This is followed by a lovely Welsh cream tea before spending some time in Llangollen itself. Perhaps stroll along Dee Lane and Victoria Promenade, watch the river tumble beneath the bridge or find some unusual gifts in the independent shops.
