End the day by visiting Loch Lomond Shores, a shopping destination that offers a mix of department stores, boutique shops and nationwide retailers. Immerse yourself in the town's rich heritage, evident in the magnificent Victorian facades embracing the picturesque Rothesay Bay. Along the stunning esplanade gardens, you'll find the renovated Isle of Bute Discovery Centre; a distinctive 1920s circular structure crafted from cast iron and glass. This centre, now a hub of entertainment with a cinema, theatre, and interactive exhibits, also serves as a showcase for the best of Bute. Consider exploring the remarkable Rothesay Castle, where dungeons, sturdy outer walls, and a grand hall have been meticulously restored. Adjacent to the castle lies the intriguing Bute Museum, offering a fascinating glimpse into the island's history. Follow the main roads for a scenic drive around Bute before returning to Dunoon.

Day Four: Spend a day discovering Dunoon, which has an impressive town centre with craft shops, gallery, museum and cafes.
